Dan O'Reilly Says She Will Go On Stand Again and Supply Documentary Evidence Against the Slain Architect.

MILLION TO BE OFFERED AS BAIL PENDING TRIAL.

Juror Steele Makes a Call on Delmas and Declares Prisoner Treated His Former Counsel Shabbily-Thaw Asks to See Molineux.

In the event of Harry Thaw being placed on trial for his life a second time Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will go on the stand and repeat the remarkable story she told in the first proceeding. This was announced this afternoon by Dan O'Reilly, who is now in full charge of Thaw's defense, as well as acting counsel for Thaw's wife.

"If another trial is held," said Mr. O'Reilly, "it has been agreed that the same line of defense as that used in the first trial will be followed Evelyn Thaw will tell her story again, but her testimony will be greatly strengthened by documentary evidence that was not used before."

When District-Attorney Jerome re turns from Lakeville on Wednesday charge of the legal disterests of Harry Thaw, will hold a conference with him for the purpose of discussing the matter of admitting Stanford White's slayer to bail pending the next trial. O'Reilly will be prepared to show the District-Attorney that the Thaw family can give bond in any amount that can Thaw's mother is ready to post a million dollars in bonds and securities so

Although Mr. Jerome has expressed Although Mr. Jerome has expressed himself as being unalterably opposed to the release of Thaw on ball, there is said to be a possibility that some arrangement may be made. In any event Mr O'Rellly is now preparing to swear out a writ of habeas corpus for his cibent in order to get the ball application properly before some Justice of the Supreme Court before the end of the present week.
